Mr. G.H. Keluskar for the applicant.

Mr. M.S. Topkar for respondent Nos. 1 to 99.

CORAM: SMT. NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED: 21ST SEPT., 2007.

P.C.:

1. The civil application has been filed by the Corporation seeking extention of time to deposit the difference of wages payable under the 5th Pay Commission, as directed by this Court on 19.6.2007. The petitioners are ready to deposit Rs.10,00,000/- today in this Court and seek a further period of six months to deposit the balance amount, either by way of instalments or in a lumpsum.

2. Considering the reasons stated in the civil application, despite the vehement opposition of Mr. Topkar, learned advocate appearing for the respondents, in my view, it would be proper to allow the civil application in the following terms:

(i) The petitioners shall deposit Rs.10,00,000/- during the course of the day.

(ii) The balance amount of Rs.66,94,791/- shall be deposited within six months from today by instalments of Rs.11,15,000/- in each month. The remaining amount shall be deposited together with the last instalment of Rs.11,15,000/-.

(iii) Any two consecutive defaults in depositing the aforesaid amount will result in the stay being vacated.

3. The directions regarding the investment of the amount has already been passed in the order dated 19.6.2007.

4. Civil application disposed of accordingly.
